We're about to get to the main camp, gentlemen. Let's act natural.

We ran out of gas and food while we were patrolling.
Is that so?

Wait!

As I thought, they aren't even literate enough to handle the information.

The tag within our body is transmitting information and that's what's important.
It doesn't even matter if we match with the personnel information that came up.
In any case, we were lucky that they were just blockheads
